

General's Ammunition

Every warship launched, every rocket fired,
every gun that is made, signifies in a final sense a theft from those who are hungry, a theft from those not fed, a theft from those not clothed, a theft from those who are cold, {a theft from those in need.}

From President Eisenhower's farewell address.