"Window Waltz" was written for a ceremony to celebrate the renovation of some cherished stained glass windows originally dedicated to loed ones. The song can be performed for any occasion of remembrance and appreciation.

Feel free to improvise or use other instruments or voicings as desired. There is another full arrangement for voices (or instruments) in which violins or violas, string bass, guitar, and even winds can be used. If interested, go to www.songsforall to listen to the digitized version and/or print out the score.

If you would like separate parts, different keys, or transcriptions for non-C instruments, email kayne@songsforall.

Enjoy!
